1. Zinck NV Crémant d'Alsace – 6btl – CASE PRICE $230

This is an incredible value sparkling wine from Alsace. The domaine produces thoughtfully made organic wines that seriously over-deliver. The NV Crémant is a blend of Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Pinot Blanc. It's creamy yet crisp with citrus, green apple, baked brioche notes.

2. Bruno Paillard NV Brut 1er Cuvée, Champagne – 6btl – CASE PRICE $510

The flagship from Paillard is pure class. A blend of Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, and Pinot Meunier from 25 vintages going back to 1985. Paillard is known for their low dosage that results in an extra dry style. This is broad yet cracy and mineral with citrus, almond, baked bread, cherries.

3. Telmo Rodriguez 'Basa', Rueda, Spain – 12btl – CASE PRICE $270

Easily one of the best-value wines in our portfolio from rebel winemaker Telmo Rodriguez. This is from Rueda in the Northwest and is a blend of mainly Verdejo with a touch of Sauvignon Blanc. Think fruity, round, ultradrinkable with a lightly floral character and a grassy finish.

4. Ca'Rugate 2017 Soave Classico 'Monte Fiorentine' – 6btl – CASE PRICE $200

Soave can sometimes be anonymous but in the right hands it really shines. Ca'Rugate is one of the best producers in Italy's Veneto region. This is a single-vineyard wine made from 100% Garganega grown on pure volcanic soils. It's medium bodied and savoury from aging on its lees.

5. Julien Brocard 2017 Chablis 'La Boissonneuse' – 6btl – CASE PRICE $355

Jean-Marc Brocard is a big name in Chablis. In the last few years, his son Julien took over the winemaking and also started a separated label under his own name using exclusively the estate's 15 hectares of biodynamic vines. This is a single-vineyard Chablis that drinks like a 1er Cru with so much texture on the palate, lemon oil, white flowers, oyster shells, and chalk.

6. Dominique Piron 2016 Morgon 'La Chanaise', Beaujolais – 12btl – CASE PRICE $365

The Piron family has been growing grapes in Beaujolais since the sixteenth century. This is Gamay at its finest, from old vines grown on granite soils. Of the 10 Crus in Beaujolais, Morgon produces one of the fullest bodied styles. This wine boasts blue fruit, candied violets, graphite.

7. Felsina 2016 Chianti Classico Berardenga – 6btl – CASE PRICE $270

Don't think twice about this one. Felsina is one of the storied wineries of Tuscany. They farm organically and all of their Chianti is strictly 100% Sangiovese, like in Brunello. The 2016 is a stunning wine, rich but polished with dark cherries, leather, tobacco and licorice. Savoury!

8. Jaeger Defaix 2017 Rully 1er Cru Clos du Chapitre, Burgundy – 7btl – CASE PRICE $370

This is a joint label between Didier Defaix (from Bernard Defaix in Chablis) and his wife H el ene Jaeger, whose family owns vines in the C ote Chalonnaise. This is as close as you'll come to value Burgundy! From a monopole vineyard surrounded by a stone wall, a little less than one hectare.

9. Raats 2016 Jasper Red Blend, Stellenbosch, South Africa – 6btl – CASE PRICE $240

Bruwer Raats is one of the most exciting winemakers in South Africa. He strictly focusses on Chenin Blanc and Cabernet Franc and has become the New World benchmark for both. This is his Bordeaux blend dominated by Cab Franc with brambly fruit, forest floor, dark chocolate and aniseed. Fine-grained tannins and velvety.

10. Paolo Scavino 2015 Barolo – 6btl – CASE PRICE $480

From the warmer 2015 vintage, this Barolo is quite open and approachable with expressive notes of black cherry, rose petals, and leather. A serious wine for discerning guests or for tucking away in the cellar.
